The Intelligencer. BY TELEGRAPH CONGRESS

THE telegraph this morning brings us brief tidings of more bloodshed in the South, the inevitable concomitant, it appears, of the rule of Andrew John son. The elections in Louisiana were held Friday and Saturday, and we learn that in addition to violent threats and frauds, there were assassinations of prominent Republicans in different parts of the State. One colored candi-date for the Legislature was killed in believed the Constitution will carry by 20,000 majority. 0,000 majority.

Surely if anything were needed to en the hands of law and justice at Washington, against the bloody usurper on whose conscience all these deeds of violence will rest in the day of judgment, it must be the accounts that come up from all parts of the South detailing the fruits of that "policy" which has yielded such a harvest of blood from Georgia to Texas and from Memphis to New Orleans. How long is this Cataline to abuse the country Not more than a week longer if the Senate does its duty.

THE Point Pleasant Register says Hon. Wm. E. Stevenson is spoken of as a suitable person for the Union candidate for Governor and Col. Thayer Melvin, the present Attorney General, for reelection as Attorney General. We suppose that if Col. Melvin is willing to accept a re-nomination he will re ceive it by unanimous consent. W have heard no one else spoken of in that connection. The Colonel has won golden opinions during his short term as the law officer of the State. Mr. Stevenson already has opposition in the direction of the Governorship. The editor of the Parkersburg Times has had free talk with Mr. Stevenson as to his being a candidate for Congress, etc. and feels at liberty to make the following statements:

While he feels grateful for the unsolicited and spontaneous expression of preference of him for this and other positions spoken of by his personal and political friends, he authorizes us to say that he is not now nor will he be in the way of any candidate who can unite the party, bring harmony into the ranks and secure success for our ticket, both State and National. He regards the present state of the country as demanding from every one a willingness to sacrifice personal aims to the greater interests of the State and of the Union; and for himself he will not use nor permit his friends to use any means by which an honest expression of the views and preferences of Union men cannot be had. To this end he would prefer to see the people send their own delegates to the several conventions untrammeled by pledges, preferences or the influences of cliques. Any man who can receive the unblased support of the people in Convention or otherwise, he will support with his whole heart and seek to promote his election by all honorable and upright means. If he can receive the nomination for Congress or for any other office with which his name has been connected, under these conditions, he will access of our ticket in the coming states.

ed, under these conditions, he will accept and do all he can to insure the success of our ticket in the coming election. If others are more fortunate than himself he will gladly support the nominees of the several Conventions. In a word, he does not want it understood that he does not want it understood that he has any other feeling in the matter than the success of the party with which he is in heart and soul identified. If his own nomination for either of the positions spoken of by his friends will secure this result he will run; if other gentlemen, his personal and political friends, can command the condidence of the party and secure its success, he does not wish these friends to understand that he is. In their way to honorable promotion.

The Times devotes considerable space to the subject of candidates. It remarks to the subject of candidates. It remarks of Gen. Karns as a candidate for Congress, that he is vouched for as an origgress, that he is vouched for as an original Republican during the Fremont campaign before he became a resident of West Virginia, by the Berks and Schuylkill (Pa.) Journal—which is at least going a good ways from home for Schuylkill (Pa.) Journal—which is at least going a good ways from home for an endorsement. Judge Brown, of the Supreme Bench, is spoken of, in connection with other candidates already known, as a candidate for Congress in WHEELING, WEST VA., TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 21, 1868.

Washington, April 20. SENATE.

Court opened at 11 o'clock. All the managers were present.

In response to inquiry by the Chief Justice, Mr. Curtis stated that the counsel for the President considered their evidence as closed.

Mr. Bingham said the managers wight to include the president considered.

Mr. Bingham said the managers might desire to place on the stand one or two witnesses who had been subponsed early in the trial, but who had not appeared hitherto.

The Chief Justice was understood to say it would be proper to first obtain an order from the Senate.

Mr. Bingham—I wish it to be understood that I desire to consult my associates about it first; so far as the order is concerned, I take it for granted that the suggestion made at the time that the evidence was closed on the part of the managers, that it would be consistent for us without further order it these witnesses should appear, to introduce them on the stand, is sufficient, because the Senate will recollect that, although I have not myself referred to the journal, it was stated by my associate manager, Mr. Butler, in telling the Senate that the event was considered for nal, it was stated by my associate manager, Mr. Butler, in telling the Senate that we considered our case closed, resserving, however, the right of calling some other witnesses or offering some other documentary testimony that might be obtained afterwards.

Senator Johnson—I am not sure I heard correctly the honorable manager. I rise merely for the purpose of inquiring whether the managers desire to have the privilege of offering any have the privilege of offering any evidence after the argument begins? Mr. Bingham—As at present advised, I am not aware that the managers have any desire of that sort. I wish to be understood by the Senate that there are understood by the Senate that there are one or two witnesses who are imporsant on the part of the managers, who were early subponced on this trial, and although we have not been able yet to find them, we have been advised that they have been in the Capitol for the last forty-seight nours.

Mr. Yates repeated the inquiry whether the managers intended to offer testimony after the argument was commenced.

Mr. Bingham—As at presentadvised, we have no purpose of the sort; we do not know what may occur in the progress of the trial.

Mr. Butler offered in evidence a portion of the journal of Congress of 1774-75, relating to drafting a commission for Washington, as General-in-Chief, and its form as issued. Also, a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, relating to the practice of that department in making ad interim appointments.

evidence in chief.

The yeas and nays resulted, 14 to 35, so the evidence was not received.

Mr. Butler announced that the case for the managers was closed.

Mr. Evarts made the same announcement, when Mr. Boutwell requested an adjournment until to-morrow, to allow him more time for preparation. He said Mr. Stanbery had been relied on to make the final argument for the dense, and though he was now recoverto make the anal argument for the de-fense, and though he was now recover-ing he would require a short interval in which to regain strength, and the counsel would now suggest that an ad-fournment be made until Wednesday next.

Mr. Logan requested leave to file his argument, which he said was now printed.

Mr. Sherman submitted an order granting leave to the managers and counsel to file their arguments, which went over on objection.

The Court adjourned till Wednesday and the Senate went into executive session.

New Orleans, April 18.—The election yesterday and to-day passed off quietly in this city, notwithstanding the violent intimations on the part of the rebels. Hancock's Boards of Registry and the Commissioners of Election appointed by them are nearly all rebels, and have resorted to every subterfuge to prevent the colored men from voting. Unnumbered frauds have been reported from nearly every voting precinct in the city. We have polled a large majority for the Constitution and for all the Republican candidates, but as the Commissioners of Election are in most instances noted rebels and thugs, fraud is being resorted to in counting the ballots, which will greatly reduce our legal majority. The State will, nevertheless, give 20,000 majority for the Constitution.

THE WEST VIRGINIA

NEWS SUMMARY.

BY TELEGRAPH. -A Port Jervis dispatch mentions the death, Sunday night, of A. Oliver, one of the victims of the recent disaster. He belonged in New York, and was en route from Cincinnati. - Three burglars were discovered in the Fair Haven, (Mass.,) National Bank on Saturday evening, who escap-ed from a window on the clerk enter-ing. Three suspicious characters have been arrested, who doubtless are the culprits. -A. C. Thorp com -Laflamme, the Frenchman who wa — nanamme, the Frenchman who was so murderously assaulted in Webster, Mass., on Wednesday night, by his wife and paramour, died Sunday night. The wife of D. Price, in Dudley, Mass., committed suicide the same night.

—A little boy named Willie Norris, of Providence, R. I., while walking along a railroad track in that city Friday afternoon, became frightened at a train and fell, his head striking some stones and causing injuries that resulted in death.

—The Parkersburg North American says it has been decided that the Balti-more and Ohio Reilroad Company will at an early day rebuild their depot in that city and make a handsome building of it. The House Committee of Election

—The House Committee of Elections will soon meet to consider the case of Hogan sgainst Pile, of St. Louis, and the Utah case. Just as soon as the impeachment trial is over, the Committee will bring some of the cases up in the House. That of Delano against Morgan, of Ohlo, will probably come up first. —A student attending the academy at —A student attending the scaemy at Dixfield, Me., was seriously, and it is feared fatally, injured while playing ball in that village a few days since. The ball struck in the abdomen with great force and he has been very ill

In a certain family, not long since, a pair of twins made their appearance, and, as a matter of course, were shown to their little sister of four years. Now it so happened that whenever a rather prolific cat of the household had kittens, one of them, of course the prettiest, was saved, and the balance were drowned. When the twins were shown the child by their happy father, little L—looked at them long and earnestly, and at length, putting her little finger on the cheek of one of them, looked up and said, with all the seriousness possible, "Paps, I think we'll save this one."
